"For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith." Mark 11:23

Changes Made

Since the Jones' have returned we have made some changes in the services and I want to take a moment to share with you how our Sundays play out here in Udon and Khon Kaen. First, we have changed back to having the morning service in Udon and an evening service in Khon Kaen. During Sunday School we have split the boys and girls that are 9 years old and up into 2 classes. Danny is teaching the boys and Jahnet is teaching her ladies meeting. Kak, a Thai lady teaches the 8 year olds and down. During the preaching service I have been continuing preaching through the book of Mark, Jahnet teaches the American kids in English while Rachel teaches the 8 year olds and down in Thai. After service we meet at Danny's house for lunch and then we are off to Khon Kaen (a 1 1/2 hour drive) for the evening service. There we have the preaching service first and Danny teaches a class afterwards. Jahnet and Rachel take turns teaching the kids each week so they can each have time in the preaching service since they are both busy during the preaching in Udon. We have dinner and then drive home. Needless to say, it is a very busy, but gratifying day of serving our Lord. We will also be starting up Bible school and English classes soon. Thank you to all who lift us up to the Lord. God Bless!

"Heart" of the "Help Meet"

In all MY ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct MY paths. As long as I stick to that, my day, of course, runs smoothly. There are times; however, during a day that straying from His directions and His paths occurs. I know this is my flesh... it is my choice to stray... and you would think after 10 years of being saved, I would know that following His directions is far better. Yet, still I fall, stumble or just plain choose to go another way... But, what is exciting and fairly new and shows my growth in my walk with the Lord... Is... that this straying hurts and is uncomfortable... more than before... and it is so much easier to see when it happens... like I really have new glasses and obviously the closer I am to the Lord... the harder it is to be away from Him... and I am blessed to have a Saviour that when I call upon Him... He gives me rest... He responds as if He had been waiting for me with nothing else to do... and I quickly let Him pick me back up and set my feet upon His blessed path... and closer to Him than before, through His forgiveness... I continue the wonderful happenings of the day that He so graciously gave me... with the family that I love so dearly... in this life that He has blessed me with. Thank you very much for all of your prayers. God Bless! -Jahnet

First grade started by reviewing kindergarten stuff. My favorite is Math because it has fun things to do. The hardest is reading because of all the rules. Mommy says that soon I will stop thinking about rules and all the words will be like sight words. Part of me loves reading so I can find out what happens in the stories! - Hannah

1st grade is fun. I think reading is easy (rules have never held ME back). I also love cursive. Math is sometimes hard because I like to rush through my work. Sometimes they stick a subtraction problem in there and my mommy says even if I know the right answer, if I am careless it doesn't count. I still love school though!- Ahleah
