Jones Family Prayer Letter

Tara and Tiffany Jones

The ministry continued to grow while we were in the States with Bro. Tim Sims and the Thai people all chipping in to serve.

Back Home

After many months of travelling throughout the States and reporting to churches on our furlough, we are finally back home in Thailand. We had all been homesick and ready to end our deputation travels after over 100 appointments and almost 40,000 miles, but I didn't realize how much we all missed our home in Thailand until we got back. It was good to see familiar faces and get back to work in the churches here. It took a few weeks to get everything back to normal, once we got home. Our first day back was interesting... The radiator blew out in my Ranger on the way out of the airport, and Bro. Tim Sims towed us back home with his truck. When we got to our house, there was a power outage in the village, so we spent the night with the Sims. The next day the power was back on, but we had no water. The pipes had been clogged with leaves falling into our reservoir. Slowly, I've been plugging away at fixing odds and ends and getting our lives back into working order. The churches in Udon & Khon Kaen are doing great. We will be traveling to Chiang Mai to finish up the foundation paperwork for our new visas next month. We are working on the office for the foundation at the Udon church, and will be moving the ICP translation ministry and English classes there. I am very excited about our goals and prospects for the future of the ministry here in Thailand. Please pray for us as we continue our endeavor to reach the lost of this land for the Lord.

6 Years in Thailand

Rachel and I first traveled to Thailand in June 2001. The following year, after raising support, we returned to the field to begin a work in Northeastern Thailand. After six years on the field, we have begun two churches, started a Bible school, built three church buildings (outgrowing the first two), witnessed God's saving grace in hundreds of souls, translated literature, seen the Lord call many other missionaries to the field of Thailand, and this is just the beginning. Sure, we've had our struggles, but it's been an exciting adventure. We're excited to see what the Lord has in store for us as we continue to serve Him here in Thailand!

A warm reunion with friends. We were greeted by the Sims family at the airport as we returned home to Thailand.
